

Haiti:

Elections under Occupation

a grassroots perspective

- What is at stake in the coming US sponsored elections in Haiti?
- How is the popular movement organizing to oppose US-UN Occupation?
- How should we support the popular struggles?
- Why are Haitians immigrants being massively deported from the Dominican Republic?

Join us in a forum to debate these issues:

Friday, November 25, 2005 - 6:00 PM
at the Church of the Evangel Community Hall, Brooklyn

1950 Bedford Avenue (Bet. Winthrop/Hawthorne St) – #2 train to Winthrop

Guest Speaker:

– Yanick Etienne, a representative of Batay Ouvriye, a workers' movement organizing workers and peasants throughout Haiti and in Dominican-owned maquiladoras in the border "free trade zone".

For information: 718-284-0889 - info@grassrootshaiti.org - www.grassrootshaiti.org
Organized by the Grassroots Haiti Solidarity Committee • $5 Donation – No one turned away

Co-sponsored by the Batay Ouvriye Solidarity Network, SELA (the Haitian Information Center), the Nicaragua Solidarity Network, NYCISPES, Socialist Action, the Brooklyn Greens